8	UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
9	Plaintiff,	CASE NO. CR11-120-JCC
10	V.	DETENTION ORDER
11	JOHN WASHINGTON,
12	Defendant.
13 14	Offense charged:
15	Conspiracy to Distribute Marijuana, 1,000 kilograms or more
16	Date of Detention Hearing: May 3, 2011
17	The court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based
18	upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no
19	condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the safety of
20	any other person and the community, and that defendant will make his court appearances as required.
21	FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION
22	(1) There is probable cause to believe d	efendant committed the drug offense charged in
23	this case. The maximum penalty for	this offense is in excess of ten years. There is

- therefore a rebuttable presumption against defendant as to both dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).
- (2) Nothing in the record effectively rebuts that presumption.
- (3) Wiretaps and other evidence indicate that defendant was a major customer in the Seattle area for marijuana distributed by the alleged conspiracy, headed by Jacob Saul Stuart. The evidence also indicates that defendant had contacts in Atlanta, GA and in other areas, enabling the conspiracy to sell drugs in those areas as well.
- (4) Defendant was surveilled receiving multiple hockey bags containing marijuana.
- (5) A search of defendant's residence produced 50 pounds of marijuana, and a large amount of currency in a safe. A search of the trash at defendant's residence in September of 2010 produced bags labeled to indicated different strains of marijuana; packaging materials; and a digital scale.
- (6) In 2004 defendant was convicted in federal court in Tennessee for use of a telephone to facilitate a cocaine distribution. A search of his residence at that time produced $700,000 in cash.
- (7) Defendant currently has no known legitimate employment.
- (8) Defendant admits that he smokes marijuana on a daily basis, and that he has also experimented with Ecstasy in the past.
- (9) The charges in this case carry a mandatory minimum sentence of 10 years, and a maximum of life imprisonment. The prospect of such penalties provide defendant with substantial incentive to flee, if released. Although he has significant local support in this community, his apparent ties in Atlanta and other locations support concerns about whether he would remain here, if released.

DETENTION ORDER - 2 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)

1	It is therefore ORDERED:
2	(1)	Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney
3		General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable,
4		from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
5	(2)	Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with
6		counsel;
7	(3)	On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
8		Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is
9		confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an
10		appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
11	(4)	The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel
12		for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial
13		Services Officer.
14	DATED this 3rd day of May, 2011.
